Victory Alert: Big Wins for Our Members!

This month, we fought hard and secured three major victories that directly impact you:

- No more mandatory overtime
- Expanded healthcare coverage
- A new paid training program

What It Means for You:

These wins mean more time with your family, better healthcare options, and opportunities to develop your skills—all without compromising your rights on the job. This is what union solidarity achieves! [Read more details on each win]

What Members are Saying

"This new healthcare coverage has been a game-changer for my family. My daughter's insulin is now fully covered." – Janet M., Union Member

"The paid training is a great chance for us to grow our skills and move up!" – Jose L., Warehouse Worker

Member Actions That Made It Happen

These victories didn't come easy. It took long hours at the bargaining table and strong action from members like you who attended rallies, spoke up in meetings, and showed up when it mattered most. Here's how your fellow members helped win these changes:

- Hundreds attended our City Hall rally last month
 - Dozens of member stories were shared with the negotiating team to illustrate the real impact of mandatory overtime and lack of healthcare coverage.
